

Anthropology

Please refer to the current Undergraduate Academic Catalog to see the course descriptions and a major description with requirements for Anthropology.

New students considering a major in Anthropology should select ANTH 101, which fulfills part of the Human Experience and Society General Education requirement.

Below please find some examples of first semester schedules for an Anthropology major. There are many variations of a first semester schedule; the examples are just meant to help you see that there are many ways to reach the same goals.

For information about the General Education Requirements Met below visit the General Education Requirements website.

*These paths assume fall matriculation. Students entering in the spring semester will make appropriate adjustment for sequencing issues.

\*This particular course is in a discipline that allows students with demonstrated competence upon admission to UMW (such as AP/IB credit, dual enrollment, etc.) to begin courses at a higher level. Please read the Academic Planning Guide carefully to see if you meet the requirements. For example: students may begin at any level language course for which they feel prepared (101, 102, 105, 201, 202 or 205), but must then complete the rest of the sequence in order without repeating or skipping any levels.*
